

FOUND IN MORQUE
AFTER 5 YEARS

Aged Father of Annie Grau
Had Been Tireless in His
Search Since She Left Her
Home in Newark.

RAN AWAY WHEN ONLY A GIRL OF SEVENTEEN.

No Clue to Her Whereabouts
Found Until She Was Picked
Up Dying in Brooklyn During Storm Last Week.

The fifteen years' search for Annie Grau conducted by her aged and wealthy father, a resident of Newark, has ended by the finding of the body on a slab in a Brooklyn morgue. But instead of being that of the innocent seventeen-year-old girl who left her home because she could not agree with her stepmother, it was the body of a woman of the world, a woman whose bitter experiences had led her down and down until, drunken and dissipated, she fell as she staggered to her miserable room, fractured her skull and died.

It was the body of a woman found dying and submerged in a pool of rain water under the door stoop of No. 133 Washington street, Brooklyn, last Friday morning.

How She Was Identified.

Robert Marchand, an undertaker in Court Square, read of the finding of the woman, of her death in the Cumberland street Hospital and the description. Believing he knew her he went to the morgue and identified the body as that of the young woman he had known as Anna M. Cook, who had been known as No. 357 Washington street.

He informed the police and after an inquiry among her dissolute companions, the women of the streets, the police were able to get a complete record of the young woman. He went over to Brooklyn to-day and claimed the body.

He was touched by the fact that the woman who had been leading a life similar to that of his daughter had raised $15 among themselves with which to defray part of the funeral expenses. He declined this, saying he was able to pay all expenses, and then the women devoted their contribution to flowers for the casket.

When seventeen years old the girl, as Annie Grau, had left her father's home in Newark. She could not agree with her stepmother and ran away. Not until her body was found in the morgue was a word heard of her going by her father. He had searched everywhere for her. He had employed detectives for years to look for her. A thousand clues were run down, but no word was heard of her.

Married a Man Named Cook.

Mr. Marchand did not know anything of the woman's life. He had seen her place daily for years and from inquiry knew her name and where she lived. That was all. But others, speaking of her, said that soon after she ran away from home she married to a man named Cook. She lived with him about two years and left him, her friends saying that she was drifting in the hope of a room in Washington street. Recently her friends noticed that she was drinking heavily, getting to her room intoxicated, later every morning. When asked why she drank so much she replied that she was drunk and did not think of her troubles.

Adolph Grau, the woman's father, has lived for thirty-two years in the flat on the top floor of the tenement at No. 14 Walnut street, Newark. It was there that Annie was born soon after the family moved in. It was there that her mother died and it was there that her father took his second wife.

"Poor when they moved into the place they continued to live there when they became more prosperous. The aged father says he expects to die there."

Neighbor Recalls Annie.

Only one of the neighbors could recall Annie. The others had only heard Grau speak of her and knew that he had been searching for her. The one who remembered the girl said she was self-willed and insisted on having her own way.

"There had been dissensions in the Grau home," said the neighbor who recalled Annie. "and one day she did not come home to supper. In a few days her father received a note from her saying she had run away. That was going to make her own living and that when she was rich and may be married to a fine man she would come back and see them."

Several times there have been reports that Annie had come home downhearted, did come back at night to see her father, but these stories he always denied. He said he never saw her since that night when there was an unoccupied place at the supper table and she always behaved as if she was searching for her.

"His absence worried him a great deal, and he now appears to be much older than he really is, just because of worry as to what had become of his daughter. He spoke of her very often, of what a fine girl she was and expressed the fear that perhaps she was lost forever."

He told her that she had struck the downward path. He always thought of her as working some place, but she was working in the way of a prostitute, working her life away, and he wanted to find her so that he could help her.

SSS FOR THE BLOOD

The best known and most popular blood purifier and tonic on the market to-day is S. S. S.

There is hardly a man, woman or child in America who has not heard of "S. S. S. for the blood." It is a standard remedy, a specific for all blood troubles and unequalled as a general tonic and appetizer. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, the herbs and roots of which it is composed are selected for their alternative and tonic properties, making it the ideal remedy for all blood and skin diseases, and their enfeebling effects, as it not only purifies, enriches and invigorates the blood, but at the same time tones up the tired nerves and gives strength and vigor to the entire system.

FROM CONGRESSMAN LIVINGSTON, OF GEORGIA.

I know of the successful use of S. S. S. in many cases. It is the best blood remedy on the market.

FROM DR. GOV. ALLEN D. CANDLER.

S. S. S. is unquestionably a good blood purifier, and the best tonic I ever used.

For Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Blood Poison, Malaria, Anemia, Scrofula, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Acne and such other diseases as are due to a polluted or impoverished condition of the blood, nothing acts so promptly and effectually as S. S. S. It counteracts and eradicates the germs and poisons; cleanses the system of all unhealthy accumulations and soon restores the patient to health. Write us if you desire medical advice and our physicians will give your case prompt attention without charge.
